Press release December 27, 2019

Azelio's rights issue oversubscribed

On 28 November 2019, Azelio AB (publ) ("Azelio" or the "Company") announced that the Board of Directors, pursuant to the authorization granted by the extra general meeting on 26 November 2019, had resolved on a partly guaranteed rights issue of up to approximately SEK 350 million (the "Rights Issue"). Azelio announces that the preliminary outcome for the Rights Issue, for which the subscription period ended on 23 December 2019, indicates that the Rights Issue is oversubscribed and that no guarantee commitments will need to be utilized. The Rights Issue will provide the Company with approximately SEK 350 million before deduction of transaction costs related to the Rights Issue.

"We are very pleased with the strong interest in participating in the rights issue from both new and existing shareholders. Furthermore, we see a strong demand for our technology and vast opportunities to contribute to an increased use of renewable energy sources. The proceeds from the rights issue will serve us well on our way towards reaching the broader market."

Jonas Eklind, CEO

About the Rights Issue

Those registered by Euroclear Sweden AB as a shareholder in Azelio on the record date on 5 December 2019 had preferential right to subscribe for shares in the Rights Issue. For each share held in Azelio on the record date, one (1) subscription right was received. Six (6) subscription rights entitled to subscription for seven (7) new shares at the subscription price SEK 7.10. In addition, existing shareholders and new investors were offered the opportunity to subscribe for shares without subscription rights.

Preliminary outcome

The preliminary outcome indicates that approximately 35.7 million shares, corresponding to approximately 72 percent of the offered shares, have been subscribed for with subscription rights in the Rights Issue. Additionally, applications for subscription of approximately 18.1 million shares without subscription rights, corresponding to approximately 37 percent of the offered shares, have been received. Thus, the preliminary outcome indicates that the Rights Issue is oversubscribed and that no guarantee commitments will need to be utilized.

Notice of allotment

Those who have subscribed for shares without subscription rights will be allocated shares in accordance with the principles set out in the prospectus published on 4 December 2019. Notice of allotment to the persons who subscribed for shares without subscription rights is expected to be distributed on 30 December 2019. Subscribed and allotted shares shall be paid in cash no later than on the settlement date, 3 January 2020, in accordance with the instructions on the settlement note. Subscribers who have subscribed through a nominee will receive notification of allocation in accordance with their respective nominee's procedures. Only those who have been allotted shares will be notified.

Final outcome

The final outcome of the Rights Issue is expected to be published on or around 30 December 2019. The last day of trading in paid subscribed shares (BTAs) will be 3 January 2020. The new shares subscribed for with and without subscription rights are expected to be traded on Nasdaq First North Growth Market around 10 January 2020.

About Azelio

Azelio is a public Swedish Company, specializing in Thermal Energy Storage (TES) with dispatchable Stirling-based electricity production when and where it is needed, modular and to a low cost. The technology is revolutionary for its unique ability to store thermal energy for production of electricity at nominal effect for 13h. The Company has over 100 employees, headquartered in Gothenburg with production facilities in Uddevalla and development centers in Gothenburg and Åmål in Sweden, as well as international presence in China, Spain and Morocco. Since the start in 2008, the Company has invested over one billion SEK in technical development of the Stirling engine and energy storage. In June 2018, the Company changed its name from Cleanergy to Azelio and in December 2018 the Company was listed on Nasdaq First North Growth Market.
